

Equipment Tracks

In the course of our other installations, we are happy to install your equipment tracks professionally and precisely measured.

Many x-ray equipment manufacturers use this opportunity and provide us in advance of the assembly with their profile technology.

By this, for example the installation and adjustment of the cover strips can be done accurately in advance of the installation of the equipment.

Make sure you benefit from the cost and time saving by asking MSR for this special assembly.

